

Index to GBRMPA/DC/RPT-2

Potential Impacts of Dallhold Nickel's Proposed Halifax Bay Ore Importation Facility on Corals

A review of reports, statements and reviews pertaining to coral and coral reef communities

Prepared for:

Dallhold Nickel Management Pty Ltd
Level 8, Waterfront Place
1 Eagle Street
Brisbane, Qld.

21st June, 1991

Prepared by :

Fisheries Research Consultants
Coastal Resource and Environmental Consultants
185 main Road
Wellington Point, Qld.

Phone : 207 5135
Fax : 207 5135

FRC Ref : 91/9D

Contents

Introduction	1
Heavy metal toxicity from spilled nickel ore
General concerns relating to the toxicity of Ni and Cr	2
Potential impacts of heavy metals associated with spilled ore	3
Incorporation of metals into coral tissues	5
The likely effects of Ni and Cr on corals	6
Oil pollution	8
Dredging
General concerns relating to the effects of dredging	9
The effects of turbidity and sediment deposition on corals	10
The resilience of corals to periods of sediment deposition	11
Response to miscellaneous comments offered by the Authorities reviewers	13
Recovery from impacts	16
Monitoring	17
Conclusions	18
References	19